SYSTEMS OPERATIONS UNTIL JULY 1, 2011. The Systems hereby agree to reserve to the individual system Boards, Directors and staff, the operation of existing programs and services, as advisable, and any necessary wind-up thereof until July 1, 2011. The Systems agree that principal coordination of transitioning these operations should be through the individual System Directors in consultation with the Southern System Planning Panel, the Transition Board, and any Library System Director employed or appointed for the new System prior to July 1, 2011. The primary goal is to accomplish the maintenance of the programs, operations and services to members in the transition to the new Library System.

The Systems each agree to delegate to the Transition Board, the authority for development and effectuation of policies and all activities relating to continuation of program operations and services which are to take effect after July 1, 2011. In the event of the determination by the individual System Directors in coordination with the Transition Board such effective date should be sooner than July 1, 2011 in a particular respect, and specifically including such services and operations as facilities or equipment maintenance agreements, and the delivery service, the Systems hereby transfer such authority to the Transition Board.

STATE AND FEDERAL GRANTS AND CONTRACTS. The Systems agree to transfer and delegate to the Transition Board, as necessary or advisable, the authority to prepare and submit any appropriate proposals for state or, as available, federal grants and contracts, and including the authority to make those commitments required by such grants or contracts as the Transition Board sees fit.

The Systems hereby agree to delegate the authority to the Transition Board to prepare, approve, and submit such plans and documentation. The systems reserve to subsequent agreement the final application to the State Library for the merger of two or more systems. The systems recognize and appoint the Transition Board as the initial Board of Directors of the new Library System, in a de facto status, until which time election procedures for selection of a new Library System Board are approved by the Illinois State Library and can be implemented.

PERSONNEL. The systems agree to delegate and transfer authority to the Transition Board to establish, and to the extent necessary or advisable, execute required documentation, for the provision of continuation of appropriate employee benefits (including specifically Illinois Municipal Retirement fund arrangements, vacation, holiday, sick leave policies, provisions for health insurance and the like).
